

CLEMENCEAU'S MESSAGE TO THE MIDDLE WEST

CLEMENCEAU HAS A
NEW AND BITTER
PILL FOR AMERICATHIRD FORMAL ADDRESS TO BE GIVEN IN CHICAGO IN THE AFTERNOON"TREAT 'EM ROUGH," SEEMS TO BE HIS IDEA OF DOING
THINGS HERE(By United Press)
Chicago, Nov. 28.—Georges Clemenceau today had a new and still more bitter pill for America to swallow.

Those close to the jungle forecast the Tiger's rumble will rise to a roar in his third formal American address at the auditorium at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Up as the dawn's icy blast swept in from Lake Michigan, and while most of the city still slept, Clemenceau was at work polishing off the potion he will invite America to seek for its own good and for the "peace of the world."

In his black skull cap and dressing gown, he was not unlike a chemist working with a stubby fountain pen instead of a pestal and mortar.

Two rules are assigned to the Tiger's determination to make today's speech stronger than any he has as yet delivered.

1. It may be, his friends say, that he feels his message—that message from his heart—which he came personally at the age of 80 to deliver, is not "getting across."

2. Or it may be the reaction of a fighter to the suggestion of his friends, voiced from all sides that he "ease up" and sugar coat his pills.

Whatever the reason, Clemenceau is a statesman, as he was a physician of the old school. "Treat 'em rough," he once said laughingly, and now he is going to put it into practice.

There has been, of course, a lighter side to the Tiger's reception in the American homeland and hospitable bosom of the "windy city."

The city that was but a tiny one when last Clemenceau saw it, more than half a century ago, paid homage to its distinguished guest today.

Chicago, in the Tiger's own words, has grown beyond all recognition since the days in the '60s when young Clemenceau stood on its threshold, but then, so has the Tiger.

Leading citizens in tribute recalled the empires he has weakened and the new maps of Europe he has drawn with his own firm hand since the school teacher days of the last century.

And, through the adulation that the city heaped at the doorstep of the Potter Palmer residence on the "gold coast" where Clemenceau rested and prepared his speech, the Tiger, although gratified, bared his teeth. Something new, something perhaps startling will be in the message delivered at the auditorium, close friends and counselors of the fighting statesman say.

The Tiger has remained adamant on the point that his message must ring clear. He has his claws unsheathed for battle; soft pats such as a great friendly Tiger might deliver have no part in his scheme of things despite sincere counseling of his friends.

When a tiger of the India jungle feels death coming on, it goes out and meets death fighting whatever the odds. Something of this is in the gallant old Frenchman's attitude, he admits.

Clemenceau's speech today will be in a measure tuned to the ear of the middle west. General Pershing met Clemenceau at the station and the diminutive Frenchman hurled himself into the Black Jack arms exclaiming "How glad I am to see you again," just as though they had not met since the armistice, although the same scene was enacted at the Manhattan opera less than a week ago.

Mayor Thompson, not always sympathetic towards France, made the Tiger come to him for the city's official welcome. Clemenceau rode around by way of the City Hall and rode eleven flights up in an elevator to say hello to the mayor in the latter's office.

But, although the French war premier's utterances may be tinged by

CONCILIATION LAW IS HELD CONSTITUTIONAL(By United Press)
Bismarck, N. D., Nov. 28.—North Dakota's board of conciliation law passed in 1921 was held constitutional by the state supreme court in a decision handed down today.

The law provides for conciliation of controversies where amounts involved are $200 or less.

The American Judicature society was interested in the case here. Attorneys representing the society obtained permission to file briefs in the case.

Chatfield, of the Kasebier-Chatfield Shellac Company, New York, in his report as chairman of the committee on alcohol of the National Paint, Oil &amp; Varnish association, in convention here. ## Improving Street Near Cemetery

After the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting by Secretary Kaatz, the chairman of the streets and boulevards committee for the past years, Mrs. Otto Lundberg, reported on the improvement of the street along the east side of Evergreen cemetery by filling up the wash out which had been used as a dumping grounds and leveling out the roadway, also the improvement of the fill by the addition of the railing. She reported that billboards at the corner of Third avenue and Kindred street had as yet not been removed.

State Highway No. 2

The president called on County Highway Engineer Walter Murphy, who spoke on State Highway No. 2, and the proposed changes in its route. After considerable discussion pro and con all conclusions point to the route through Northeast Brainerd and around Lum park as the most logical for the highway. It was pointed out that two dangerous railroad crossings would be eliminated, the distance would be shortened by three miles, a considerable saving of about $25,000 per mile; the land through which it would pass can be acquired at a more reasonable price, and it would be of greater benefit to the county as Oak street is already a state highway. A special committee is to be appointed to take the matter up with the president.

ANOTHER BLOW AT
SHIP SUBSIDY BILLHOUSE ADOPTS AMENDMENT
KNOCKING OUT PERMANENT
APPROPRIATION(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 28.—Another blow was struck at the Harding-Lasker ship subsidy bill today when the House adopted an amendment knocking out the permanent appropriation feature and stipulating that no subsidy money shall be paid out except as it is appropriated each year.

Republican leaders backed down before the onslaught of the democrats and western republican irregulars.

Chairman Madden, of Illinois, of the appropriations committee, offered the amendment. Republican Floor Leader Mondell promptly endorsed it.

An amendment by Representative Frear, republican, of Wisconsin, providing that no part of the $125,000,000 construction fund could be paid out until the excess profits tax had been re-enacted, was met by so many "noes" that Frear did not think it worth while to insist upon a record vote.

Secretary of Agriculture Wallace in charge of the enforcement of all packer control laws is strongly opposed to the consolidation.

Attorney General Daugherty, the law officer of the government, who would conduct any prosecution of the packers at the request of the department of agriculture not only sees no legal obstacle to the merger, but favors it.

This difference of opinion probably will be brought up at today's meeting.

President Harding will have to make the final decision.

Paris, Nov. 28.—Burial of Miss Rose Shannessy, pretty American girl of Minneapolis, was delayed at the request of the American consulate today pending further investigation of her mysterious death at the apartment of a prominent bachelor here.

TWO DIVERGENT VIEWS ON WAR GIVEN
BY GENERAL PERSHING AND J. LONGUET(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Nov. 28.—The war just ended will not be the last war, General John J. Pershing told the throngs of admirers here today.

He met Georges Clemenceau, former Premier of France in Chicago, and came to the Twin Cities for a day before going home to Nebraska to spend Thanksgiving day with relatives.

"No one can tell when war will come. The outside world is not at peace. The situation in the Near East is far from encouraging," he said.

"There is much unrest in Europe, and in the Far East. Such conditions make it especially incumbent upon us to be especially alive to our own interests. We must keep before us the possibility of having to protect our citizens at home and abroad. Those who recognize the eternal law of human relations with all its uncertainties, must not be led astray by argument or sentimental fallacy."

St. Joseph, Mich., Nov. 28.—Michigan's antisynicalist act was put to a test for the first time when 20 alleged leaders of the communist party of America, including W. Z. Foster, Chicago, prominent in the steel strike of 1919 and now head of the Trades Union Education league, were called for trial for violation of its terms.

The 20 men under indictment were arrested by state and federal officers following a gathering in Berrien county, 20 miles south of St. Joseph, last August. Although the warrant on which they were arrested named 76 men and women—alleged radicals—all but 16 escaped.

Foster was arrested in Chicago. He denied being present at the meeting. Earl Browder, secretary to Foster, and Jack Schulman, Winnetka, were arrested in Chicago also. Joseph Z. Sak was arrested in New York and later returned to Chicago.

No War Between French and Germans

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Nov. 28.—There will be no future war between France and Germany, according to Jean Longuet, member of the French Chamber of Deputies who arrived in the Twin Cities today.

M. Longuet, who is a grandson of Carl Marx, the father of socialism, will speak in Minneapolis and St. Paul. He said eastern newspapers conceived the idea of a challenge he issued to Georges Clemenceau for a debate in this country. The challenge was turned down by M. Clemenceau. "Militarism must be given up in order to avoid future wars," he contended. He described Clemenceau as a "man of the past."

The nationalist bloc suffered a staggering blow at the last election, he said.

FILIBUSTER ON

Washington, Nov. 28.—The promised anti-administration filibuster in the senate is on.

Southern democrats uniting with the strong progressive element of the upper chamber rallied today for the first attack on the Dyer antilynching bill when it was thrust before the upper house of congress by republican leaders.

Practically the same group which has announced its opposition to the ship subsidy is banded together to "talk the Dyer bill to death," and their threats have born such great warning that, it is indicated, the republican chieftains may withdraw the measure within a few days and make no effort to prepare it for final passage at this time.

NEAR EAST PARLEY
CLOSES; NO DATE
FOR NEXT MEETINGDISAGREEMENT BETWEEN BRITISH AND FRENCH AS TO POLICY RESULTSTURKS REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE THE BRITISH SEIZURE OF OIL LANDS

Lausanne, Nov. 28.—The near east conference has broken down. Yesterday's meeting of the first, the political commission, to discuss the Turkish southern frontiers concerning Mosul, has been cancelled. No date has been set for the next meeting.

A disagreement between the British and French as to what policy to pursue is given as the reason for the break. M. Barrere has demanded instructions from Premier Poincare in Paris as to what attitude to take and whether to make concessions or to reach an agreement with Lord Curzon. Lord Curzon's failure to reach a private Anglo-Turk agreement on the Mosul oil fields with Ismet Pasha last evening is another reason.

The Turks refuse to recognize the British seizure of oil lands despite the tempting offers of Lord Curzon, the Turks hoping to obtain full rights of sovereignty in all this region through America's enunciation of an open door policy.

While the conference is broken down, the third, the economic committee, under M. Barrere, was scheduled to meet today instead of Lord Curzon's committee. It is merely a pretext to mask the situation, as it is not denied that the success of the third committee is dependent on the first.

Americans can be sure of equal rights in the Mosul oil fields, and can even get preferential treatment if the United States will recognize Angora and negotiate in the treaty. Ismet Pasha rejected Lord Curzon's proposition to restore the Mosul region to the Ottoman sovereignty and return a ratification of the British petrol concessions.

In the hopes raised by the American commission's warning and demand for an open door policy in the near east, the Turks intend to avoid commitments with other powers until they can get America to participate in the development scheme.

Ismet Pasha declared he wished the American people, the American government and American capital to realize that Turkey seeks to escape the fetters binding her by foreign governments squeezing special rights and privileges from her.

SHIPSTEAD OFF FOR WASHINGTON MONDAY

Minneapolis, March 28.—Dr. Henrik Shipstead, senator-elect from Minnesota, left last night for Washington. He will attend the conference called for Dec. 1 by Senator R. M. Dr. Shipstead plans to spend several days in Washington. "I am just going to look around and get my bearings a little," he said.

The ambassador denied assertions in the article that S. C. Lawrence, an attaché of the embassy, was concerned in the alleged propaganda and that the British government was taking any measures in opposition to the ship subsidy bill.

CLEMENCEAU HAS A NEW AND BITTER PILL FOR AMERICA

THIRD FORMAL ADDRESS TO BE GIVEN IN CHICAGO IN THE AFTERNOON

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Georges Clemenceau today had a new and still more bitter pill for America to swallow. Those close to the jungle forecast the Tiger's rumble will rise to a roar in his third formal American address at the auditorium at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

NAMES NEW CABINET; ARE MOSTLY IN JAIL

(By United Press) Dublin, Nov. 28.—Eamonn De Valera today from his hiding place defied the Free State by naming a new Irish Republic government of his own. The members of the rebel cabinet—most of them at least—are in jail.

20 RADICALS GO ON TRIAL IN MICHIGAN

STATE'S ANTISYNDICALIST ACT IS PUT TO TEST FOR FIRST TIME

St. Joseph, Mich., Nov. 28.—Michigan's antisynicalist act was put to a test for the first time when 20 alleged leaders of the communist party of America, including W. Z. Foster, Chicago, prominent in the steel strike of 1919 and now head of the Trades Union Education league, were called for trial for violation of its terms.

The 20 men under indictment were arrested by state and federal officers following a gathering in Berrien county, 20 miles south of St. Joseph, last August. Although the warrant on which they were arrested named 76 men and women—alleged radicals—all but 16 escaped.

Foster was arrested in Chicago. He denied being present at the meeting. Earl Browder, secretary to Foster, and Jack Schulman, Winipeg, were arrested in Chicago also. Joseph Z. Sak was arrested in New York and later returned to Chicago.

LIEUT. CLAY FOUND DEAD IN HIS BED

(By United Press) St. Paul, Nov. 28.—Lieut. Charles E. Clay, 25, of Louisville, Ky., was found dead in bed at Ft. Snelling late yesterday with a pistol at his side. He had been shot through the head. No War Between French and Tens

Minneapolis, Nov. 28.—There will be no future war between France and Germany, according to Jean Longuet, member of the French Chamber of Deputies who arrived in the Twin Cities today.

M. Longuet, who is a grandson of Carl Marx, the father of socialism, will speak in Minneapolis and St. Paul. He said eastern newspapers conceived the idea of a challenge he issued to Georges Clemenceau for a debate in this country. The challenge was turned down by M. Clemenceau. "Militarism must be given up in order to avoid future wars," he contended. He described Clemenceau as a "man of the past."

The nationalist bloc suffered a staggering blow at the last election, he said.

FORMER GREEK CABINET IS ORDERED EXECUTED

(By United Press)

Athens, Nov. 28.—Six members of the former Greek cabinet held responsible for Greece's defeat by the Turks have been ordered executed and two others sentenced to imprisonment for life. Among those condemned to die is former Premier Cournaris, arch enemy of Venizelos and instrumental in restoring Constantine to the throne. Upon the overthrow of Venizelos he succeeded to the premiership under Constantine.

6 Were Shot by Firing Squad

Athens, Nov. 28.—Six members of the Greek cabinet that fell when King Constantine abdicated, were executed here today, it was officially announced.

They were shot by a firing squad. The ministers were condemned by a military court which investigated the recent Greek defeat at war with Turkey. They were accused of being responsible for the Greek collapse.

FILIBUSTER ON IN THE SENATE

(By United Press) Washington, Nov. 28.—The promised anti-administration filibuster in the senate is on.

Southern democrats uniting with the strong progressive element of the upper chamber rallied today for the first attack on the Dyer antilynching bill when it was thrust before the upper house of congress by republican leaders.

Practically the same group which has announced its opposition to the ship subsidy is banded together to "talk the Dyer bill to death," and their threats have born such great warning that, it is indicated, the republican chieftains may withdraw the measure within a few days and make no effort to prepare it for final passage at this time.

POISON CANDY VICTIM EXHUMED

The girl said she intended the poison for Mrs. Henry Schneider, but addressed it wrongly.

NEAR EAST PARLEY CLOSES; NO DATE FOR NEXT MEETING

DISAGREEMENT BETWEEN BRITISH AND FRENCH AS TO POLICY RESULTS

TURKS REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE THE BRITISH SEIZURE OF OIL LANDS

Lausanne, Nov. 28.—The near east conference has broken down. Yesterday's meeting of the first, the political commission, to discuss the Turkish southern frontiers concerning Mosul, has been cancelled. No date has been set for the next meeting.

A disagreement between the British and French as to what policy to pursue is given as the reason for the break. M. Barrere has demanded instructions from Premier Poincare in Paris as to what attitude to take and whether to make concessions or to reach an agreement with Lord Curzon. Lord Curzon's failure to reach a private Anglo-Turk agreement on the Mosul oil fields with Ismet Pasha last evening is another reason.

The Turks refuse to recognize the British seizure of oil lands despite the tempting offers of Lord Curzon, the Turks hoping to obtain full rights of sovereignty in all this region through America's enunciation of an open door policy.

While the conference is broken down, the third, the economic committee, under M. Barrere, was scheduled to meet today instead of Lord Curzon's committee. It is merely a pretext to mask the situation, as it is not denied that the success of the third committee is dependent on the first.

Americans can be sure of equal rights in the Mosul oil fields, and can even get preferential treatment if the United States will recognize Ankara and negotiate in the treaty. Ismet Pasha rejected Lord Curzon's proposition to restore the Mosul region to the Ottoman sovereignty and return a ratification of the British petrol concessions.

In the hopes raised by the American commission's warning and demand for an open door policy in the near east, the Turks intend to avoid commitments with other powers until they can get America to participate in the development scheme.

Ismet Pasha declared he wished the American people, the American government and American capital to realize that Turkey seeks to escape the fetters binding her by foreign governments squeezing special rights and privileges from her.

SHIPSTEAD OFF FOR WASHINGTON MONDAY

Minneapolis, March 28.—Dr. Henrik Shipstead, senator-elect from Minnesota, left last night for Washington. He will attend the conference called for Dec. 1 by Senator R. M. LaFollette of Wisconsin, which is supposed to discuss a legislative program for the radical group of senators and house members of all parties. Dr. Shipstead plans to spend several days in Washington. "I am just going to look around and get my bearings a little," he said.

HEARST CHARGE BRINGS PROTEST FROM GEDDES

Washington, Nov. 28.—After reading an article in Hearst newspapers in which it was charged the British government was engaged in an extensive propaganda intended to defeat the pending administration ship subsidy bill, Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador, went to the residence of Secretary Hughes and complained to him over the publication. The ambassador denied assertions in the article that S. C. Lawrence, an attaché of the embassy, was concerned in the alleged propaganda and that the British government was taking any measures in opposition to the ship subsidy bill.

$6 ASSESSMENT IS LEVIED BY CHAMBER

Plan Carried at Monday Evening Session to Cover Deficit Created in 1922

PRES. W. E. HAYDON PRESIDED

New Members Joining Since October 1 Exempted from Paymnet of Special Assessment

The special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Monday evening called to take up the matter of making an assessment which would take care of the year's deficit, was largely attended and very successful.

President W. E. Haydon presided and brought out a very good discussion of the Chamber's finances, which were threshed out in detail. The finance committee has gone over the work of auditing the accounts and reported on what was needed to carry the club to the first of the year.

A motion to make an assessment of $5 per member, when put to a vote lost, and a new motion, raising this assessment to $6 per member carried, by a vote of 32 to 18. The latter motion carried a clause exempting new members who have connected with the Chamber since October 1st, from paying this assessment.

The importance of carrying on the work of the Chamber of Commerce is recognized and the $6 assessment added to the $10 annual dues, makes the cost to each member only $16 for the year 1922. This is much lower, it is pointed out, than the dues of other clubs in the surrounding territory, for cities of the same class as Brainerd. Dues in these clubs range from $20 to $35 per year in addition to a pledge for a budget. It is felt by many that the dues in the local organization are much too low to carry on the work that the Chamber should do and is planning to do.

These matters were discussed at the meeting Monday evening, but no action taken, since the special meeting was called only for the purpose of levying an assessment.

"The Middleman" is coming.

APPLE TAKES PLACE BESIDE BIG POTATO IN DINING CAR RANK

Alongside of the "Great Big Baked Potato," in the Northwest's hall of fame products, is going "The Big Apple."

The Northern Pacific railway announced today that it is ready to begin serving and boosting the finest apples, the Yakima or any other celebrated apple valley has ever produced — apples worthy of rank beside the "Great Big Baked Potato" of renown. On Northern Pacific dining cars, from this date forward, "The Big Apple" will be so ranked.

L. K. Owen, superintendent of Northern Pacific Dining Cars, is an enthusiast about the supreme development of the apple in the Northwest. "Standards are now so high," he said, "that it is possible to buy and serve apples year after year with confident assurance that grades, flavors, colors and tastes will be uniformly perfect.

"There is just the right apple for each season. There is just the right apple for each culinary purpose. The Northern Pacific has studied the problem for many years. We believe that now we can undertake to feature 'The Big Apple' with the same popular success that we have for so long emphasized the 'Big Baked Potato.' Not that we are letting up on the potato, no sir-ee, but we are merely adding another supreme and perfect northwest product to headlines in public favor.

COURT HOUSE GROUNDS NOT FOR SALE

As soon as the public was informed that an offer had been made to the county commissioners for a portion of the spacious grounds on which the magnificent county building stands, there arose a mighty cry against any consideration of such a short-sighted proposal.

There are three outstanding reasons why these grounds, which in time may be made beautiful, should not be subdivided into lots on which buildings destined for business purposes will be built.

In the first place, the amount offered for the ground, that it is proposed individuals shall buy from the county, is not equivalent to the value of the land, to be made over to the purchaser, measured simply from a commercial standpoint.

And again, even though the prices offered were many times what it is, neither the $3,000 offered, nor an amount vastly higher, should constitute a temptation to the commissioners to sell any part of the spacious grounds on which the county building stands. If the city council was justified in refusing a permit to build a filling station at the corner of Sixth and Laurel streets, what shall be said about a proposal to build a filling station on the grounds surrounding the county building? The city council felt that if any building were erected on the site at the corner of Sixth and Laurel streets, it should be in keeping with the sensible plan of allowing the erection, on prominent downtown sites, of only such buildings as would do credit to the business district. The same is true of the proposal to build such a building on the county grounds in Brainerd. Few citizens of either Brainerd or Crow Wing county would wish to point out to their friends the beautiful county building lying in the background and behind a filling station. Nor would they wish to look over the roof of a filling station to glimpse their magnificent county building.

Yet again, even to give favorable consideration to such a project shows a short-sighted viewpoint. In our larger cities spaces such as that on which our county building stands could be sold for vast sums of money, but they are held in trust as places of beauty for the advantage of the people. This is true of Grant Park, Chicago, which facing on to Michigan avenue is so favorably located for the erection thereon of business houses that it would bring almost any figure asked. However, the vision of one man, when but few could see Chicago's tremendous growth and the requirement of just such a breathing place for the people, prevented the sale of the land then, and created a sentiment that saved it for the people when the growth of the city pointed to the commercial advantage that would accrue from leasing it to firms who wished to build thereon.

Neither now, nor at any time in the future, should any of the land surrounding the county building be sold for sites on which business houses are to be erected, and this applies not only to the price that is offered for this site for a filling station but to any price that may be offered in the future. Forward looking citizens, who believe that Brainerd has a future, and that present plans should look to that future, will be as one in saying that the court house grounds are not for sale for any purpose at any price either now or at any time in the future.

OPEN DOOR POLICY IN TURKEY

RICHARD WASHBURN CHILD, as spokesman for the department of state of the United States in the Near Eastern conference, has seriously upset the conference by his insistence that the policy of the "Open Door" must be that on which negotiations shall proceed.

In expressing the views of the department of state, Mr. Child says: "The United States has no desire to take any action which might embarrass the allied powers in the proper effort to secure peace. It desires nothing which need conflict with the interests of other countries, if the principle of commercial opportunity for all nations is recognized at the outset."

In other words our government is standing firmly for the "Open Door" policy in Turkey, with equal opportunity for all nations to enter into commercial relations with the people and with freedom to negotiate with the Turkish government for equal right to develop the natural resources of the territory controlled by the Turks.

Such insistence may lead to a better understanding, and may check the tendency to grab territory, for the purpose of exploitation, which has sometimes marked the settlements arrived at in such conferences.

The time is drawing near when the government of the United States must assume some responsibility for the unsettled affairs that are causing so much trouble in the other half of the world. It is not likely that this government will be given the consideration which would be her due if she were a party to the obligations involved in settlements. Such cannot be expected so long as she stands apart and makes demands as a spectator in the conference, but is not a participant in the conference by definite commitment, prepared to back up the decisions reached by the conferees.

The United States has done well in demanding the "Open Door" but the government will do still better when it announces that we will be one of those who shall see to it that the door of equal opportunity shall be kept open. To impose a policy upon others, while refusing to take a hand in supporting that policy, is contrary to the teaching of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, who always insisted that a nation should take no stand that it did not intend to see through to the limit.

CANADA'S RAILROAD PROBLEM

CANADA has called upon Sir Henry W. Thornton to attempt to bring the country's railroad systems into a place where they will cost the government less. Most of the roads are now under government ownership and are costing the country a vast amount of money annually. Advances made from the public treasury totaled $112,632,154 for the fiscal year ending March 31, last; and this amount does not include all the charges that the government was required to pay.

Sir Henry W. Thornton, who was born at Logansport, Indiana, has a wonderful record, and as president and general manager of the newly created board of railroad management, he will have an opportunity of bringing his best efforts to the vast task confronting him. The Canadian government has the roads upon its hands and has attacked the colossal task of bringing them into a condition of more efficient operation so that they will be less of a burden upon the tax payers. Canada's experience is certainly not in the nature of an argument for government ownership.

MINNESOTA looks forward to bringing back the "Brown Jug," won again by Michigan, when the teams face each other next season.

MINNESOTA will feel as though she had three senators in congress if Dr. Marion Leroy Burton is chosen to fill the unexpired term of Truman Newberry.

If Charlie Chaplin would only get married he would silence many rumors.

per officials. Mr. Murphy promised the League every assistance possible.

Additional Polling Place.

The matter of securing an additional polling place for this ward was left in the hands of the committee on community and ward improvement with instructions to take immediate action.

New High School Site

The matter of the proposed new high school was discussed and the sentiment of the meeting was that this is a question of vital importance to every citizen of Brainerd, and the importance of the location being in the center of the city and of population was strongly brought out. It was suggested that the same be located in the block directly west of the fill and north of Kingwood street.

The resolutions objecting to the sale of the northeast corner of the court house grounds were then unanimously adopted.

Ford Interested in Brainerd.

Mrs. Powell addressed the League on the matter of interesting Henry Ford in locating a factory and distributing point in Brainerd. It was suggested that the old Northern mill site would be an ideal location for such a plant. It was left in the hands of President Ilse, Mr. Kaatz, and Mr. Zimmerman to take it up with the Chamber of Commerce.

Considerable discussion arose over the proposed removal of the fire equipment from this ward and it was decided to take steps to prevent its removal.

Committee Chairmen Named.

The president appointed the following as chairmen of committees, each chairman to name his own committee members:

Community and Ward Improvement—Hugo A. Kaatz.
Education and Recreation—Elmer L. Dahl.

Publicity and Social Welfare—Albert O. Anderson.

Agricultural and Highways, including Streets and Boulevards—Mrs. J. C. Herbert.

Finance and Membership—Mrs. E. L. Guin.

The next regular meeting falling on Christmas the date was left to the call of the president.

COURT HOUSE GROUNDS NOT FOR SALE

As soon as the public was informed that an offer had been made to the county commissioners for a portion of the spacious grounds on which the magnificent county building stands, there arose a mighty cry against any consideration of such a short-sighted proposal.

There are three outstanding reasons why these grounds, which in time may be made beautiful, should not be sub-divided into lots on which buildings destined for business purposes will be built.

In the first place, the amount offered for the ground, that it is proposed individuals shall buy from the county, is not equivalent to the value of the land, to be made over to the purchaser, measured simply from a commercial standpoint.

And again, even though the prices offered were many times what it is, neither the $3,000 offered, nor an amount vastly higher, should constitute a temptation to the commissioners to sell any part of the spacious grounds on which the county building stands. If the city council was justified in refusing a permit to build a filling station at the corner of Sixth and Laurel streets, what shall be said about a proposal to build a filling station on the grounds surrounding the county building? The city council felt that if any building were erected on the site at the corner of Sixth and Laurel streets, it should be in keeping with the sensible plan of allowing the erection, on prominent down town sites, of only such buildings as would do credit to the business district. The same is true of the proposal to build such a building on the county grounds in Brainerd. Few citizens of either Brainerd or Crow Wing county would wish to point out to their friends the beautiful county building lying in the background and behind a filling station. Nor would they wish to look over the roof of a filling station to glimpse their magnificent county building.

Yet again, even to give favorable consideration to such a project shows a short-sighted viewpoint. In our larger cities spaces such as that on which our county building stands could be sold for vast sums of money, but they are held in trust as places of beauty for the advantage of the people. This is true of Grant Park, Chicago, which facing on to Michigan avenue is so favorably located for the erection thereon of business houses that it would bring almost any figure asked. However, the vision of one man, when but few could see Chicago's tremendous growth and the requirement of just such a breathing place for the people, prevented the sale of the land then, and created a sentiment that saved it for the people when the growth of the city pointed to the commercial advantage that would accrue from leasing it to firms who wished to build thereon.

Neither now, nor at any time in the future, should any of the land surrounding the county building be sold for sites on which business houses are to be erected, and this applies not only to the price that is offered for this site for a filling station but to any price that may be offered in the future. Forward looking citizens, who believe that Brainerd has a future, and that present plans should look to that future, will be as one in saying that the court house grounds are not for sale for any purpose at any price either now or at any time in the future.

OPEN DOOR POLICY IN TURKEY

RICHARD WASHBURN CHILD, as spokesman for the department of state of the United States in the Near Eastern conference, has seriously upset the conference by his insistence that the policy of the "Open Door" must be that on which negotiations shall proceed.

In expressing the views of the department of state, Mr. Child says: "The United States has no desire to take any action which might embarrass the allied powers in the proper effort to secure peace. It desires nothing which need conflict with the interests of other countries, if the principle of commercial opportunity for all nations is recognized at the outset."

In other words our government is standing firmly for the "Open Door" policy in Turkey, with equal opportunity for all nations to enter into commercial relations with the people and with freedom to negotiate with the Turkish government for equal right to develop the natural resources of the territory controlled by the Turks.

Such insistence may lead to a better understanding, and may check the tendency to grab territory, for the purpose of exploitation, which has sometimes marked the settlements arrived at in such conferences.

The time is drawing near when the government of the United States must assume some responsibility for the unsettled affairs that are causing so much trouble in the other half of the world. It is not likely that this government will be given the consideration which would be her due if she were a party to the obligations involved in settlements. Such cannot be expected so long as she stands apart and makes demands as a spectator in the conference, but is not a participant in the conference by definite commitment, prepared to back up the decisions reached by the conferees.

The United States has done well in demanding the "Open Door" but the government will do still better when it announces that we will be one of those who shall see to it that the door of equal opportunity shall be kept open. To impose a policy upon others, while refusing to take a hand in supporting that policy, is contrary to the teaching of that great American, Theodore Roosevelt, who always insisted that a nation should take no stand that it did not intend to see through to the limit.

CANADA'S RAILROAD PROBLEM

CANADA has called upon Sir Henry W. Thornton to attempt to bring the country's railroad systems into a place where they will cost the government less. Most of the roads are now under government ownership and are costing the country a vast amount of money annually. Advances made from the public treasury totaled $112,632,154 for the fiscal year ending March 31, last; and this amount does not include all the charges that the government was required to pay.

Sir Henry W. Thornton, who was born at Logansport, Indiana, has a wonderful record, and as president and general manager of the newly created board of railroad management, he will have an opportunity of bringing his best efforts to the vast task confronting him. The Canadian government has the roads upon its hands and has attacked the colossal task of bringing them into a condition of more efficient operation so that they will be less of a burden upon the tax payers. Canada's experience is certainly not in the nature of an argument for government ownership.

MINNESOTA looks forward to bringing back the "Brown Jug," won again by Michigan, when the teams face each other next season.

MINNESOTA will feel as though she had three senators in congress if Dr. Marion Leroy Burton is chosen to fill the unexpired term of Truman Newberry.

If Charlie Chaplin would only get married he would silence many rumors.

per officials. Mr. Murphy promised the League every assistance possible.

Additional Polling Place.

The matter of securing an additional polling place for this ward was left in the hands of the committee on community and ward improvement with instructions to take immediate action.

New High School Site

The matter of the proposed new high school was discussed and the sentiment of the meeting was that this is a question of vital importance to every citizen of Brainerd, and the importance of the location being in the center of the city and of population was strongly brought out. It was suggested that the same be located in the block directly west of the fill and north of Kingwood street. The resolutions objecting to the sale of the northeast corner of the court house grounds were then unanimously adopted.

Ford Interested in Brainerd.

Mrs. Powell addressed the League on the matter of interesting Henry Ford in locating a factory and distributing point in Brainerd. It was suggested that the old Northern mill site would be an ideal location for such a plant. It was left in the hands of President Ilse, Mr. Kaatz, and Mr. Zimmerman to take it up with the Chamber of Commerce.

Considerable discussion arose over the proposed removal of the fire equipment from this ward and it was decided to take steps to prevent its removal.

Committee Chairmen Named.

The president appointed the following as chairmen of committees, each chairman to name his own committee members:

Community and Ward Improvement—Hugo A. Kaatz.

Education and Recreation—Elmer L. Dahl.

Publicity and Social Welfare—Albert O. Anderson.

Agricultural and Highways, including Streets and Boulevards—Mrs. J. C. Herbert.

Finance and Membership—Mrs. E. L. Guin.

The next regular meeting falling on Christmas the date was left to the call of the president.

NAMED ENGLISH HOME 'THE ELKS'

Sam Buttress, Life Member of Elks and Knights of Pythias, Doesn't Forget the U. S. A.

NOW NEARING AGE OF 81 YEARS

On Fourth of July He Was Only One in North End, Portsmouth, Wearing American Flag

NOTE—Sam Buttress, a life member of the Elks and Knights of Pythias lodges of Brainerd, after 58 years of residence in America, decided to go to England and spend his last days there.

Sam had it all planned out, buying a cottage in Portsmouth living with his niece and rounding out his last days in peace and comfort.

Dan Lawrence is in receipt of a letter from Sam Buttress, former resident of Brainerd, now living in England. Mr. Buttress was a member of the local lodges of Elks and Knights of Pythias, and it is through the latter organization that this letter is written to Mr. Lawrence. The letter follows:

"I write a few lines hoping to find you and all brothers of the K. of J. well, as it leaves me at present.

"I suppose you are getting cold weather in Brainerd now. We get it one day and warm the next. It is a queer climate to me after being away 58 years. I would sooner have Minnesota weather. Well, I suppose it is all as you get used to it.

"We have a nice home here and very comfortable, but I like the U. S. A. best. I don't know anyone here only a few relatives that I had never seen before. But I am here and I suppose will have to put up with it now.

"I am getting near 81 years old, so I expect I will have to make the best of it. I was the only one here that had a small U. S. A. flag on my coat on the Fourth of July.

"Give my kind regards to all brothers and accept the same for yourself."

From the tone of Mr. Buttress' letter, it would seem that he is quite homesick for the good old United States in general, and Minnesota in particular. It has been suggested that all brothers who knew him in both the Elks and Knights of Pythias lodges, write him a short letter at this time, so that it may reach him by Christmas. It is quite evident from the way he writes that it would cheer him immensely if this is done. Mr. Buttress' address is "The Elks", Derby Road, North End, Portsmouth, England.

LETTER A PERSONAL ONE

Explanation Made to President of the Northern Pacific Railway Co. by Chamber Commerce Secretary

In accordance with the action taken at a recent regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, relative to a letter which Secretary O. J. Bouma wrote to the United States Marshal early in August regarding the strike situation in Brainerd, the following letter is being published.

This letter is addressed to Charles Donnelly, president of the Northern Pacific Railway Co., and was written for the purpose of clearing the Chamber of any connection and responsibility of the contents of the letter to Marshal Rustad.

"Dear Sir: I am enclosing a copy of a letter written August 5th, to the United States Marshal. This letter was written upon the stationery of the Chamber of Commerce, but was the personal letter of the secretary."

Mr. Bouma was asked to write the above letter to Mr. Donnelly, and to publish a copy of it in the Dispatch, which is the reason for its appearing at this time.

In Municipal Court

In municipal court Tuesday morning, W. B. Kincaid paid a fine of $2 for parking his automobile near a fire hydrant, contrary to the city ordinances.

The police picked up an Oakland car which had been standing on South Ninth street since Saturday. It is thought that this car was stolen and abandoned in Brainerd, and is being held awaiting some clue as to its ownership.

The car carries a Minnesota license, number 151,555. Any information concerning its ownership will be appreciated by the police department.

"The Middleman" is different.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL STARTS SOON

The annual Red Cross Roll Call begins its three-day intensive campaign in Brainerd tomorrow and continues until Saturday night. No canvassing will be done on Thanksgiving day, of course. Elsewhere over the United States this campaign is being put on from Nov. 11th to 30th, but it was thought best to make quick work of it in this locality. Short, intensive drives prove much more effective than long drawn-out ones where the enthusiasm dies out before the end is accomplished.

The work of the solicitors starts on Wednesday morning. There will be one for each block in the residence district and each section of the business portion of the city.

The school children are bringing small contributions, which will be handled through their teachers. Each room is striving to attain a hundred per cent record with each child giving something.

Headquarters of the 1922 Roll Call will be in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, and will be in charge of Mesdames Milkes, Bemmels and Quinn.

This Roll Call has had considerable advertising, through the press, the theatres and window posters, so that everyone knows of the work and the use to which the money subscribed will be put. For this reason it is felt that all will be ready with their subscriptions when the solicitors call, thus facilitating the work greatly.

"The Middleman"—you'll say it's good.

MEN NOW WORKING IN THE SHOPS, 664

Applications for Work Received from Old Men Reported Number 168 Applications

ABOUT 125 OLD MEN WORKING

Highest Payroll in Old Days Was 1-170 Men, Average Working in Winter Layoff 900

The Dispatch has received these figures on Northern Pacific railway shop employment which are believed to be fairly accurate.

Since July 1, date of the strike, the shops have received 168 applications from old men and about 125 of them are now at work.

The total roll of men now employed in the shops numbers 664. The highest roll in the old days was 1-170. Following usual winter lay-offs, the roll averaged down to about 900 men.

Shop pay day will be on Wednesday, November 29, when approximately $50,000 will be disbursed for the half-month. The men will receive their checks at the shops and will cash them at the banks.

PREPARING FOR POULTRY SHOW

Exhibition Pens Arrive for Accommodation of 500 Birds at Gardner Auditorium

ENTRY FEE 25C PER BIRD

All Birds Must Be in Pens by Thursday Noon, Show of State-Wide Interest

Work has begun in preparing the Gardner auditorium for the annual Poultry Show that is scheduled for Friday and Saturday of this week.

Exhibition pens have arrived with accommodations for at least five hundred birds, which will make this show the largest that has ever been attempted in this section of the state. The entry fee is twenty-five cents per bird.

Sam Hawkins and Louis Roth are in charge of the show and will be at the auditorium all day Wednesday and Thursday to take care of entries that come in on those days. All birds must be in the pens by Thursday noon.

Breeders from all sections of the state are taking an interest in the Brainerd show, and exhibition pens are coming from Pipestone, Wazato, White Bear, Sauk Center, Sauk Rapids, Frazee, Menaha, as well as from the territory immediately tributary to Brainerd.

This interest is a matter of much satisfaction to members of the Crow Wing Poultry Association, since it strengthens their belief in making the annual show a more than local event. It is planned to call it the Northern Minnesota Poultry Show next year, if this year's exhibition proves as successful as it is anticipated that it will.

There are only two days intervening before the show starts, and Brainerd people are requested to keep the afternoons and evenings of next Friday and Saturday open for purpose of visiting the exhibit and supporting this annual event. Plenty of entertainment has been provided and visitors from all over the state, as well as most of the farmers in the county will be in attendance. The admission fee has been reduced to 25c so that no one need stay away on account of high prices.

In Municipal Court

In municipal court Tuesday morning, W. B. Kincaid paid a fine of $2 for parking his automobile near a fire hydrant, contrary to the city ordinances.

The police picked up an Oakland car which had been standing on South Ninth street since Saturday. It is thought that this car was stolen and abandoned in Brainerd, and is being held awaiting some clue as to its ownership.

The car carries a Minnesota license, number 151,555. Any information concerning its ownership will be appreciated by the police department.

"The Middleman" is different.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL STARTS SOON

The annual Red Cross Roll Call begins its three-day intensive campaign in Brainerd tomorrow and continues until Saturday night. No canvassing will be done on Thanksgiving day, of course. Elsewhere over the United States this campaign is being put on from Nov. 11th to 30th, but it was thought, best to make quick work of it in this locality. Short, intensive drives prove much more effective than long drawn-out ones where the enthusiasm dies out before the end is accomplished.

The work of the solicitors starts on Wednesday morning. There will be one for each block in the residence district and each section of the business portion of the city.

The school children are bringing small contributions, which will be handled through their teachers. Each room is striving to attain a hundred per cent record with each child giving something.

Headquarters of the 1922 Roll Call will be in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, and will be in charge of Mesdames Milkes, Bemmels and Quinn. This Roll Call has had considerable advertising, through the press, the theatres and window posters, so that everyone knows of the work and the use to which the money subscribed will be put. For this reason it is felt that all will be ready with their subscriptions when the solicitors call, thus facilitating the work greatly.

"The Middleman"—you'll say it's good.

MEN NOW WORKING IN THE SHOPS, 664

Applications for Work Received from Old Men Reported Number 168 Applications

ABOUT 125 OLD MEN WORKING

Highest Payroll in Old Days Was 1,170 Men, Average Working in Winter Layoff 900

The Dispatch has received these figures on Northern Pacific railway shop employment which are believed to be fairly accurate.

Since July 1, date of the strike, the shops have received 168 applications from old men and about 125 of them are now at work.

The total roll of men now employed in the shops numbers 664. The highest roll in the old days was 1,170. Following usual winter layoffs, the roll averaged down to about 900 men.

Shop pay day will be on Wednesday, November 29, when approximately $50,000 will be disbursed for the half-month. The men will receive their checks at the shops and will cash them at the banks.

PREPARING FOR POULTRY SHOW

Exhibition Pens Arrive for Accommodation of 500 Birds at Gardner Auditorium

ENTRY FEE 25C PER BIRD

All Birds Must Be in Pens by Thursday Noon, Show of State-Wide Interest

Work has begun in preparing the Gardner auditorium for the annual Poultry Show that is scheduled for Friday and Saturday of this week.

Exhibition pens have arrived with accommodations for at least five hundred birds, which will make this show the largest that has ever been attempted in this section of the state. The entry fee is twenty-five cents per bird.

Sam Hawkins and Louis Roth are in charge of the show and will be at the auditorium all day Wednesday and Thursday to take care of entries that come in on those days. All birds must be in the pens by Thursday noon.

Breeders from all sections of the state are taking an interest in the Brainerd show, and exhibition pens are coming from Pipestone, Wadena, White Bear, Sauk Center, Sauk Rapids, Frazee, Menahat, as well as from the territory immediately tributary to Brainerd.

This interest is a matter of much satisfaction to members of the Grov Wing Poultry Association, since it strengthens their belief in making the annual show a more than local event. It is planned to call it the Northern Minnesota Poultry Show next year, if this year's exhibition proves as successful as it is anticipated that it will.

There are only two days intervening before the show starts, and Brainerd people are requested to keep the afternoons and evenings of next Friday and Saturday open for purpose of visiting the exhibit and supporting this annual event. Plenty of entertainment has been provided and visitors from all over the state, as well as most of the farmers in the county will be in attendance. The admission fee has been reduced to 25c so that no one need stay away on account of high prices.

STRAINED RELATIONS IN "BIG THREE"

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Nov. 28.—Confirming reports that have been going around for two years about strained relations between Harvard and Princeton that might lead eventually to a dissolution of the "Big Three" and an establishment of a "Big Two" between Harvard and Yale, an open break was narrowly averted just before the recent Harvard-Princeton game.

As has been printed several times, the feeling has existed for two years on the Princeton campus that the slide was being greased for the Tigers out of the "Big Three" and when the outlook for a successful football team was so dark at Princeton last September, the feeling was rather general that if Yale and Harvard defeated Princeton, the Tigers would not be given a place on the Blue and Crimson schedules next year.

The speech made by Lathrop Withington, member of the Harvard football committee and former Crimson captain, at a smoker the night before the Princeton-Harvard game, in which he said that Princeton might have to be crowded off the Harvard schedule next fall, is "old stuff" now and the Harvard officials later denied that he spoke for the university.

As an aftermath something very interesting came out of it, however. It is not official, of course, but it is virtually a fact.

Harvard is not satisfied with the radical football agreement said to have been signed by the presidents of the "Big Three" and Harvard very likely will not carry out the agreement.

The agreement by which it was decided to hold no football practice before the opening of the academic year restricts the schedule to five games and the resolution to make no trips for football puts the "Big Three" practically in the position of playing nothing but neighborhood games.

In the recent endowment drive for Harvard, the western alumni made such huge contributions that they are in a position to demand some consideration from the schedule makers and it is understood that enough pressure has already been brought to bear to make it almost sure that Harvard will go to the middlewest for a game either next fall or in 1924.

Some Harvard sentiment holds the Princeton president responsible for putting across the agreement under the guise of something that would "save football." Some Harvard men cannot see that football is in need of being saved and they believe that successful football has been a big factor in making Harvard and providing athletics for the university, as football pays the freight for all other branches of athletics at Cambridge.

Withington's talk didn't do the Princeton team any harm, perhaps it was an inspiration to make them fight their heads off to show Harvard that Princeton couldn't be looked upon as an inferior team.

HEALTH BRINGS BEAUTY

Miss Florence B. Smithel

YOUR HEALTH IS VITAL TO YOU

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I have always had the utmost confidence in Dr. Pierce's remedies, because my mother took them for a number of years to strengthen her, and she praised them very highly. I have taken the Pleasant Pellets whenever in need of a laxative and have found them to be effective although very mild in their action. And I have on several occasions taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and the 'Golden Medical Discovery' when rundown, weak or nervous and have never once been disappointed, for they have restored me to perfect health and strength."—Miss Florence B. Smithel, 2020 Tenth Ave. S.

Whenever you feel the need of good confidential medical advice, address Dr. Pierce, president Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and answer will be returned without fee or charge of any kind.
